

“Clay Expectations”

A Festival of Tiles and Mosaics

Sunday, September 12, 2010, 10-5 p.m.

17th & Webster Streets., Oakland, California

Gate: $5 ($4 with this flyer!) Free street parking!

“Clay Expectations” is being presented by the Tile Heritage Foundation as a fund-raising event featuring the work of West Coast artists and artisans in support of the Foundation’s archival and cataloguing programs now underway. Contemporary tile and mosaic artists will show and sell their wares side by side with historic tile dealers; scholars will present both lectures and tours, and both clay and mosaic workshops will be available for children—so bring the whole family! This one-day event, like no other, is being presented for the first and only time in a tile-clad historic setting ideally suited to the occasion.

Click here to REGISTER NOW as a vendor.
SAVE with Early Bird Registration on or before August 12th!